April Tribe Giauque

Inspire, Motivate & Empower Your Audience to Act Now!

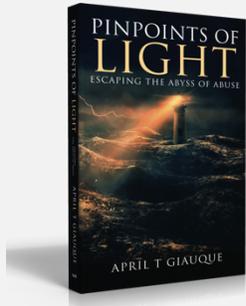

“April's story resonated with me with a deep and powerful sense of what living with domestic violence is like. Her compelling story of living with a man suffering from mental illness and drug abuse was so much like my own. The icy fear of being trapped in such a marriage was so well represented that it was like reliving my own story.”

~Martha, Author, Speaker, Inspirational Speaker & Master-Certified Coach

April's Mission:

To give hope to victims that they can be victors, open the hard conversations, and change is possible.

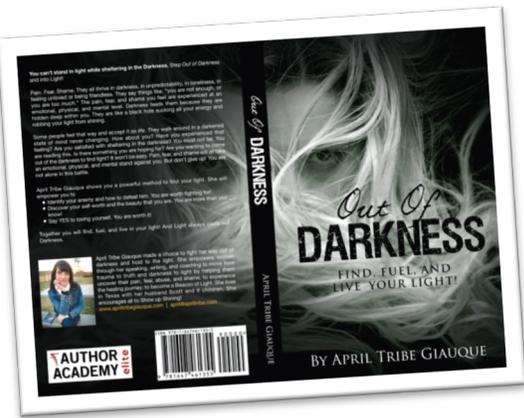

Jonily Zupancic

This process with April has been game-changing. I thrive on interactions and through the ghostwriting process she is increasing my clarity as well! It's a win-win!

Stacey Lucas

LIGHT SHINE

(3 Hour to Full-Day Workshops)

April takes the participants deeper into what it takes to be successful at finding your Worth. This comes from her second Book Out of Darkness. April gives you practical steps to:

- Manage your fears by letting go
- Get a clear vision of what you desire
- Understand how your mind helps to support what you believe
- Discover where you are stuck, and how to get free
- Understand your mission in life is a necessity not an option

Seeing RED, FLAGS

(Youth Breakout Sessions one hour or less)

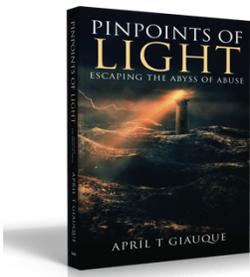

When youth, teens, and young adults are dating do they know the RED FLAGS to watch out for? There is Mental Illness and abuse and combined it leads to The Caged Animal or the Hunter. The psychotic inky blackness from my former spouse was complex from his mental illness, and I missed the Red Flags. When youth are dating how can they learn about the red flags of this topic? Participants learn that

- Abuse is about control
- Teach what Hunter's do
- Pain can lead to Abuse
- Teach what Caged Animals do
- Help Youth and teens to avoid the Red Flag warnings while dating
